They asked him to preach again on the following Sabbath, and meanwhile many Jews and devout Gentiles came to him for further instruction. On the next Sabbath the whole city was there, among them very many Jews who refused to believe St. Paul, and openly contradicted him. (Continue in the words of verses 46, 47.) Then the Gentiles were very glad; but the Jews made it impossible for St. Paul and St. Barnabas to remain there, and they went on to Iconium. Tell how they preached in Iconium, but were presently driven out by a plot to stone them, so they went on to Lystra and Derbe and preached throughout the countryside (show the towns on the map). Narrate vividly ch. xiv. 7-19. Let the class discuss these fresh examples of the devil s antagonism. Then St. Paul and St. Barnabas, despite the risk to themselves, went back to all those towns where they had left converts to found churches there for them. They had baptized and confirmed their converts, but had had no time to ordain priests; now they went back, and in every town where they had left Christians they ordained priests, and gave them careful directions as to what they were to believe and do. (Show towns on map.) Then they returned to Antioch whence they had started, and told the Christians there how God had opened the door...
