OCLC Number: (OCoLC)182747603 Excerpt: . . . and activities are at risk of erroneous payments and put in place a corrective action plan to reduce erroneous payments. Reduction targets - Targets are necessary for future improper payment levels and a timeline within which the targets will be reached. Accountability - Ensure that their managers and accountable officers (including the agency head) are held accountable for reducing improper payments. Agencies shall assess whether they have the information systems and other infrastructure needed to reduce improper payments to minimal cost-effective levels, and identify any statutory or regulatory barriers that may limit agencies corrective actions in reducing improper payments. OMB has also established Eliminating Improper Payments as a program-specific initiative under the Presidents Management Agenda (PMA). This separate PMA program initiative began in the first quarter of fiscal year 2005. Previously, agency efforts related to improper payments were tracked along with other financial management activities as part of the Improving Financial Performance initiative of the PMA. The objective of establishing a separate initiative for improper payments was to ensure that agency managers are held accountable...
